Public Sector Equality Duty

Following the introduction of the Equality Act 2010, the Public Sector Equality Duty (PSED), came into force in April 2011. The PSED has two elements; the 'general' equality duty and the 'specific duties'. For more information on the PSED, please visit https://www.equalityhumanrights.com/en/publication-download/public-sector-equality-duty-guidance-schools-england

The 'General' Equality Duty

The 'general' equality duty requires schools to have 'due regard', or think about the need to:

- Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation and any other conduct prohibited by the Act
- Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it
- Foster good relations across all characteristics between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it

You are legally required to publish progress towards these aims on an annual basis. In the table below, please give examples/evidence of ways in which your school has paid due regard for the three general equality aims during the last school year. Please also outline any potential areas for improvement for future years.

General Equality Duty Aims	Examples/Evidence for 2021/22 (or latest available)	Potential areas for improvement / future actions
Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation and any other conduct prohibited by the Act	- Assemblies on Anti-Bullying, - Assemblies relating to discrimination - PSHE/Jigsaw sessions - Restorative practice when conflict occurs, - Sanctions for poor behaviour (Red and Yellow cards), - Contacting parents, - Letters to parents, - Fixed term exclusions, - Positive behaviour strategies,	- Greater focus on discrimination and tolerance - Increase ELSA provision for development of the Restorative practice

Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it	- Access to all areas of the curriculum regardless of characteristic - Support provide for all children that require it to achieve their very best - Pupil Premium money used to ensure all children have access to activities in and out of school	- Further TA support when money is available - Access to CPD where relevant
Foster good relations across all characteristics between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it	- Pupil voice through Eco Council, post box of thought and feelings - All children treated equally, and sanctions given for those that do not behave accordingly - ELSA session for those children that require support to ensure they can succeed - Restorative Practice for children that have conflict so they can make better choices. - PSHCE/Jigsaw sessions used to discuss specific issues - A broad curriculum that covers differing religions, sex, gender and race issues	Putting together time in assemblies and Jigsaw sessions to ensure protected characteristics are discussed and how we support each other.

* The Act explains that having due regard for advancing equality involves a) Removing or minimising disadvantages suffered by people due to their protected characteristics, b) Taking steps to meet the needs of people from protected groups where these are different from the needs of other people, c) Encouraging people from protected groups to participate in public life or in other activities where their participation is disproportionately low.

The 'Specific Duties'

The 'specific duties' require schools to do the following:

a) Publish information annually to show compliance with the general equality duty

Schools should publish information that demonstrates how they have met the equality duty. Along with publishing an update on progress towards the three aims (as per the table above), there is other information that you may publish to comply with the duty. Please indicate in the table below which information you currently have and where it is published or available to view *(those marked with an asterisk are those which we will support your school with as part of the Equality & Diversity SLA):

Document/Data	Published	Where is it published?
Equality Objectives*	Yes	School website (included in Equality Policy)
Annual update towards the general equality duty and equality objectives*	Yes	School website (included in Equality Policy)
Accessibility Plan (including annual progress update)*	Yes	School website (included in Equality Policy)
Non-confidential equality data regarding pupil population at the school (gender, race, disabilities, Free School Meals, Children Looked After, language, SEN)	No
School performance data e.g. attainment, absence/attendance	Yes	School Website

Document/Data	Published	Where is it published?

Non-confidential equality data regarding staff (if employ more than 150 people)	N/A

b) Prepare and publish one or more specific and measurable equality objectives at least once every four years (and publish an update on progress towards these objectives annually)

If you have existing Equality Objectives, please outline them in the table below, along with the reasons for setting these particular objectives and a summary of progress that has been made in the last school year (including where relevant and appropriate any reference to performance data). Please also include the date each objective was set/developed. If one or more of your existing equality objectives were set/developed more than four years ago, your equality objectives will now need to be reviewed to ensure they are still relevant.

In the development of new or revision of existing objectives, you will need to consider various statistics, evidence and information such as pupil population data, SEN, Free School Meal data, participation levels, language data, accessibility, key equality issues, research, survey findings, absence, admissions, attendance data or any other relevant evidence. The objectives should also consider the three general aims of the equality duty outlined earlier. The number of objectives set should generally be proportionate to the school size; one is the minimum requirement, two or three is recommended, and more than four may be difficult to manage and achieve.

For all Equality Objectives, please summarise any key actions planned for the next school year.

As part of this Service Level Agreement, we will contact you on an annual basis to request an update on progress against the three general aims of the equality duty and your equality objectives, and will update any school information where required. This update will be included as Appendices to your Equality Policy; a copy of your policy document with these revised Appendices will be provided to you for publishing on your school website on an annual basis.

Based on the findings of the completed Accessibility Audit, an Accessibility Plan must be drawn up in line with current legislation and requirements as specified in Schedule 10 (relating to Disability) of the Equality Act 2010. The Accessibility Plan must be developed to cover a three year period and will contain relevant actions to achieve the following three aims and in order to support the Equality Duty:

- Improve access to the physical environment of the school, adding specialist facilities as necessary. This covers reasonable adjustments to the physical environment of the school and physical aids to access education.

- Increase access to the curriculum for pupils with a disability, expanding and making reasonable adjustments to the curriculum as necessary to ensure that pupils with a disability are as, equally, prepared for life as are other pupils. This covers teaching and learning and the wider curriculum of the school such as participation in after-school clubs, leisure and cultural activities or school visits. It also covers the provision of specialist aids and equipment, which may assist these pupils in accessing the curriculum.

- Improve and make reasonable adjustments to the delivery of written information to pupils, staff, parents and visitors with disabilities. Examples might include handouts, timetables, textbooks and information about the school and school events. The information should be made available in various preferred formats within a reasonable time frame.

Please look at the findings from your audit report to identify any issues or areas that need improving. For each of these areas, please outline in the table below any actions that your school needs to work towards or complete, along with responsible officer, timescales and resource implications. If you also have existing actions from previous Accessibility Audits, please include these in the table too and provide an update on progress against these actions.
