Introduction and core principles

Every pupil has a right to a full-time education and high attendance expectations should be set for all pupils, the attendance policy should account for the specific needs of certain pupils and pupil cohorts. The policy should be applied fairly and consistently but in doing so schools should always consider the individual needs of pupils and their families who have specific barriers to attendance. In development and implementation of their policy, schools should consider their obligations under the Equality Act 2010 and the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child.

An effective whole school culture of high attendance is underpinned by clear expectations, procedures, and responsibilities. To ensure all leaders, staff, pupils, and parents understand these expectations, this attendance policy, based on the expectations set out in 'Working Together to Improve School Attendance' May 2022 outlines these.

The policy should be easily accessible to leaders, staff, pupils, and parents, including being published on the school's website. Parents should be sent it with any initial information when pupils join the school and reminded of it at the beginning of each school year and when it is updated.

At Kirk Ella St Andrews Primary School, we recognise the link between regular attendance and high attainment. We expect that all pupils will attend school every day that the school is open unless there is a specific reason for the pupil not attending. We are committed to applying the core principles as set out in Working Together to Improve School Attendance, May 2022

Roles, responsibilities, and expectations – the table below is taken from the DfE 'Summary table of responsibilities for school attendance,' May 2022

Parents are expected to:	Schools are expected to:	Academy trusts and governing bodies are expected to:
Ensure their child attends every day the school is open except when a statutory reason applies.	Have a clear school attendance policy on the school website which all staff, pupils and parents understand.	Take an active role in attendance improvement, support their school(s) to prioritise attendance, and work together with leaders to set whole school cultures.
Notify the school as soon as possible when their child has to be unexpectedly absent (e.g. sickness).	Develop and maintain a whole school culture that promotes the benefits of good attendance.	Ensure school leaders fulfil expectations and statutory duties.

Only request leave of absence in exceptional circumstances and do so in advance	Accurately complete admission and attendance registers.	Ensure school staff receive training on attendance.
Book any medical appointments around the school day where possible.	Have robust daily processes to follow up absence.
	Have a dedicated senior leader with overall responsibility for championing and improving attendance.

School Times

It is important that your child is at school for the start of the school day. The school day is made up of two sessions, a morning, and an afternoon. Registers are taken during these sessions. School times are:

8.55am to 11.55am, register closes 9.15am

1.10pm to 3.20pm, register closes 1.30pm

If your child arrives at school after the register has closed then your child will incur an unauthorised absence mark for this session unless an acceptable reason is provided, e.g. evidence of a medical/dental appointment.

Informing the school of the reason for an unexpected absence.

You must contact the school as soon as possible to inform us that your child will not be attending school and you will be asked to provide a reason for this absence. This will ensure that the absence is accurately recorded in the register.

Requesting leaves of absence from school in exceptional circumstances.

Absence for the purpose of a term time holiday is not usually considered exceptional.

Please complete the school's form to request absence from school. The form can be found in the school office and on the school's website.

If your request is not approved and your child is absent during this time, then the absence will be recorded as unauthorised, and the school may refer the unauthorised absences to the local authority and parents may be liable for a penalty notice (fine).

How the school is promoting and incentivising good attendance.

Whole school assemblies are used to promote attendance, and children are given awards for good attendance. We communicate with parents via monthly newsletters, dojo and the school website.

The school's strategy for using data to target attendance improvement efforts to the pupils or pupil cohorts who need it most.

All schools record their attendance registers in a school information management system. The school will analyse this data to identify trends and patterns of pupil absence and may use this to target attendance improvement efforts to the pupils or pupil cohorts who need it most.

The school's strategy for reducing persistent and severe absence, including how access to wider support services will be provided to remove the barriers to attendance and when support will be formalised in conjunction with the local authority.

The school will use its attendance data to help it identify pupils whose attendance has fallen below 90%, making them at risk of becoming a persistently absent pupil or below 50% (at risk of becoming a severely persistently absent pupil).

The school will contact you to discuss your child's attendance if there are regular absences. Parents are contacted on the first day of absence to obtain a reason for absence. If no contact can be made, follow up texts and emails would be sent asking parents to contact the school office. If we could not make contact a member of the Senior Leadership team would make a home visit.

Letters are sent to parents with attendance below 90%, informing them of their child's attendance. If attendance does not improve, we would then invite parents in for a meeting with the Headteacher. Where there is no improvement in school attendance and all support interventions both in school and out of school as outlined above have been offered, then the school will meet with the Local Authority's Education Welfare Service (EWS) and agree whether they will become involved and formal interventions may be considered. These formal interventions could include the use of a voluntary parenting contract, penalty notice, education supervision order, school attendance order or prosecution in the magistrate's court.

SEND- and health-related absences

The school recognises that pupils with SEND and/or health conditions, including mental health issues, may face greater barriers to attendance than their peers, and will incorporate robust procedures to support pupils who find attending school difficult.

In line with the SEND Policy and Supporting Pupils with Medical Conditions Policy, the school will ensure that reasonable adjustments are made for disabled pupils to reduce barriers to attendance, in line with any EHC plans or IHPs that have been implemented. The school will secure additional support from external partners to help bolster attendance where appropriate.

Where the school has concerns that a pupil's non-attendance may be related to mental health issues, parents will be contacted to discuss the issue and whether there are any contributory factors to their child's lack of attendance. Where staff have a mental health concern about a pupil that is also a safeguarding concern, they will inform the DSL and the Child Protection and Safeguarding Policy will be followed. All pupils will be supported with their mental health in accordance with the school's Social, Emotional and Mental Health (SEMH) Policy.

If a pupil is unable to attend school for long periods of time due to their health, the school will:

- Inform the LA if a pupil is likely to be away from the school for more than 15 school days.
- Provide the LA with information about the pupil's needs, capabilities and programme of work.
- Help the pupil reintegrate at school when they return.
- Make sure the pupil is kept informed about school events and clubs.
- Encourage the pupil to stay in contact with other pupils during their absence.

The school will incorporate an action plan to help any pupils with SEND and/or health issues cope with the stress and anxiety that attending school may cause them. Such plans will be regularly monitored and reviewed until the pupil is attending school as normal and there has been signs of significant improvement.

To support the attendance of pupils with SEND and/or health issues, the school will consider:

- Holding termly meetings to evaluate any implemented reasonable adjustments.
- Incorporating a pastoral support plan.
- Carrying out strengths and difficulties questionnaire.
- Identifying pupils' unmet needs through the Common Assessment Framework.
- Using an internal or external specialist.
- Enabling a pupil to have a reduced timetable.
- Ensuring a pupil can have somewhere quiet to spend lunch and breaktimes.
- Implementing a system whereby pupils can request to leave a classroom if they feel they need time out.
- Temporary late starts or early finishes.
- Phased returns to school where there has been a long absence.
- Small group work or on-to-one lessons.
- Tailored support to meet their individual needs.

Review

This policy will be reviewed regularly and updated as necessary.

As noted in 'Working Together to Improve School Attendance,' 2022, the school will seek the views of pupils and parents as part of the review process.
