

What is a conclusion?

A conclusion will answer your question and describe patterns in your data and observations. The whole point of an investigation is to come to a conclusion - something to explain the world around us.

